Twerski Rabbi Avraham J	Have you seen the website www.guardureyes.com? I believe it is of value, not only because you realize that you are hardly the only frum person with the problem, but also because there are helpful suggestions from people who overcame the problem. I hope to contribute to that website when time allows. Twerski	Rabbi Twerski wrote this to an addict that wrote to him for help
Rav Aderet	I went to Rav Aderet in Great Neck NY last night and when I told him about GUE he said "This is the number 1 thing!" and that he would definitely allow his name to be one of the endorsers of the site/project. He just finished his shul and he said that he didn't take one check from anyone that wasn't Shomer Brit! He literally tore checks up that were given to him!	Eli G. Spoke to Rav Aderet about our work
Rabbi Wolfson	I spoke to Rabbi Wolfson already about your site for like 10 minutes and his face was glowing. He said "menei ubei shadi bei narga"...	Yakov L. Spoke to Rabbi Wolfson about our work
R' Glassman	R' Glassman told me yesterday that he already referred a few boys to your site.	Yakov L. writes us that he spoke to R' Glassman about our work. R' Glassman is assistant principal in Torah Vodaath H.S., founder of a chasidish elementary school in Boro Park called Ohr Moshe, and a self made therapist specializing in treating OCD.
RABBI BENYAMIN BRESINGER	FANTASTIC! We deal with addicts. Our experience is that a majority of addicts have a sexual addictions of some type as well. We see many "recovering addicts" who have never addressed their sexual acting out. Your work is holy and so needed. Yasher koach. Rabbi Tzvi Freeman	Hi. I direct a team of twelve responders, answering "Ask The Rabbi" and "Contact Us" for Chabad.org. We frequently deal with internet and pornography addiction and its destructive influence. Dr. Leo Steiner just pointed me to your site and I am very excited that it's here. I hope we will be able to turn many people towards you. The only question: Why didn't I know about this a long time ago? It's great to see that you are taking such a positive approach, with lots of up-talk, rather than the standard mussar shmooze. Just the other day I saw a line from the Magid of Mezritch (Ohr Torah, Parshas Beshalach). To paraphrase: "The tzadik is the foundation of the world and all the world must bend to his will. And who is the tzadik? Anyone who is Shomer HaBris." We certainly get a lot further by understanding the shomer habris as a hero, rather than berating those who are not.	Director of a team of twelve responders, answering "Ask The Rabbi" and "Contact Us" for Chabad.org.
Rabbi Nechemia Coopersmith	I think your site is great and you're helping frum people in a tremendous way.	Editor-in-Chief, Aish.com
